

Chulrua

Irish Traditional Music

More than just a healthy dose of Irish traditional music; Chulrua also talk about the instruments and the different types of tunes played in the tradition, tell a few stories about how particular tunes got their names, and about the musicians who composed or handed down the tunes and songs they play.

Paddy O'Brien, button accordion
Patrick Ourceau, fiddle
Pat Egan, guitar and vocals

A P P E A R I N G W I T H

McINNIS' KITCHEN A Touch Of The Canadian Maritimes

The hottest new folk group from Minnesota. McInnis' Kitchen music is energetic, rhythmic and is the synergy of combining Newfoundland and Cape Breton "kitchen music", an Irish ceilidh, and a New England contra dance. Their ballads touch the heart and soul and the bands' own original compositions take the listener to exciting new ground.

www.mcinniskitchen.com

TUESDAY • MAY 23, 2006 • 7:00 PM

HARRINGTON ARTS CENTER • SUPERIOR, WI

1401 BELKNAP STREET (Corner of Belknap & Hammond) • Admission: $10 per person at the door

A PRESENTATION OF POND STAGE PRODUCTIONS

For More Information contact:
Harrington Arts Center • 715-935-2787